

BPL will do more harm to radio communications than can be corrected by any means. Emergency amateur radio service will be very adversely affected and so will many other radio services. I am very much against BPL.